PREFACE.

THIS, the Southern India (Hyderabad) Volume of the Lists of British Enactments in force in Native States, contains all the information I have been able to collect concerning the British Enactments in force in the State of Hyderabad.

2. The term "British Enactments," as used in this Volume, covers not merely the enactments made by Parliament or the Legislative Council of the Governor General (including subsidiary Rules and Notifications issued by executive authorities thereunder) in exercise of the general extra-territorial jurisdiction possessed by the British Legislature over certain classes of persons (chiefly British subjects) in all Native States in India, but also the enactments made by the Governor General in Council, in exercise of the special jurisdiction acquired by him over all persons in the Assigned Districts, the British Cantonments, the Residency Bazaars and the Railways in the Hyderabad State.

3. In order to mark the distinction between these two classes of enactments, all British enactments extending to the Native State dealt with in this Volume have, besides being placed in different groups according to their local extent, been arranged under different heads, according as they belong to one or other of the classes above referred to. Enactments which expressly purport to be solely made by, or under the authority of, the British Legislature, Imperial or British-Indian, or appear, on the face of them, to have such a limited personal application that they might have been so made, have been arranged under one head and styled "British-Indian Enactments"; whilst enactments which expressly purport to be made, whether in whole or part, under the special jurisdiction acquired by the Governor General in Council in the places above specified, or appear, on the face of them, to have such an extended personal application that they must have been made in part at least, under that special jurisdiction, are placed in separate categories entitled "British-Berar Enactments," "British-Secunderabad Enactments," or otherwise as the case may require. Broadly speaking, the enactments styled "British-Indian Enactments" may be described as personal laws applicable only to certain classes of persons (chiefly British subjects), while the "British-Berar Enactments," the "British-Secunderabad Enactments," and the like may be looked upon as territorial laws applicable to all persons in Berar, Secunderabad, and the other places above indicated respectively.

4. The subordinate classification under each of these heads is identical, the enactments being arranged, as far as possible, in separate lists as they are of the nature of principal enactments, that is, enactments made in direct and immediate exercise of one or other of the two kinds of jurisdiction explained above, and subsidiary enactments, that is, enactments made in exercise of powers conferred on executive authorities in this behalf by principal enactments as above described. In the case of the British-Berar, the British-Secunderabad, and other similar enactments, the principal enactments are further sub-divided into two groups, as they are (a) Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures locally extended, or (b) Special Local Laws. The latter are, as the title indicates, new laws specially made by the Governor General in Council for these places. The former are, on the contrary, British-Indian Laws simply adopted as laws for these places. When a British-Indian enactment is so adopted for a place in a Native State in which the Governor General in Council has acquired special jurisdiction, it is said to be "extended" there; but this is, strictly speaking, an incorrect expression, as the local extent of the British-Indian enactment is in no way enlarged. In every such case a new enactment is made for the place on the same lines as the corresponding British-Indian one.

5. In addition to the enactments above described, there are the enactments which the Nizam of Hyderabad has made for the territory administered by him. No information in regard to these is available, and they are moreover beyond the proper scope of this work.

6. In order to make this volume a complete handbook to all the British enactments in force in the Native State of Hyderabad, the British enactments extending generally to all Native States in India have been included (see Part I), as well as the enactments extending locally to this particular Native State.

7. These Lists are intended to be supplementary to Aitchison's Treaties. Accordingly references have been inserted in different places in Part II of this compilation to portions of those Treaties which relate to the Hyderabad State.

8. In compiling the volume—

- (a) Notifications and Rules of a temporary nature and Notifications conferring powers on officials and others by name have, as a rule, been omitted; and
- (b) principal enactments, save the provisions of Acts of the Indian Legislature, which are to be found in the Indian Statute-book, have, as a rule, been set out in extenso.

9. Lastly, it should be clearly understood that this volume is not authoritative, and that the Government of India is in no way responsible for its contents. It has been compiled by me, with the assistance of Mr. G. R. Ridge of the Legislative Department office (to whom my thanks are due) from the official Gazettes supplemented by information obtained, through the Foreign Department, from the Resident at Hyderabad. I have made it as complete and accurate as was possible with the materials at my disposal and in the limited time which my official duties have permitted me to devote to the work, but I do not venture to suppose that it requires neither addition nor amendment, or that it is entirely free from errors. At the same time it is hoped that the volume will be found to be a sufficiently correct and comprehensive statement of British-made law in force in the Native State of Hyderabad, to make it of some practical use to Political Officers and others desirous of obtaining information on the subject.

No. 2220, the 16th October, 1873.—So far as regards Native States in alliance with Her Majesty, except Native States situate within the local limits of the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay,* the Governor General in Council, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 84 and 62 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (Act XV of 1872), hereby fixes the following scale of fees to be charged under the aforesaid Act, and makes the following rules in regard to the disposal of such fees, the supply of register-books and the preparation and submission of returns of marriages solemnized under the aforesaid Act, and the form of the register-book of marriages certified under Part VI of the same Act:—

* The Notification also does not apply to the State of Mysore (see p. 41 of the volume of these Lists relating to Madras and Mysore). It is not therefore, strictly speaking, a general one, but as it applies to the greater number of the Native States in India, it seems convenient to treat it as if it were general.

Rules under the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, XXI of 1879.

No. 31J., the 12th March, 1875.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 13 and 15 of Act XI of 1872,* and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf,† the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules:—

1. The Political Agent shall not issue a warrant, under section 11 of the Act, in any case which is provided for by Treaty, if the Native State expressly desire to abide by the procedure of the Treaty, nor in any case in which application for surrender is made under section 14 to the Governor General in Council or any Local Government.

2. The Political Agent shall not issue a warrant, under section 11, except on a request preferred to him in writing by, or by the authority of, the person for the time being administering the executive Government of the Native State at which he is the British representative, and on the understanding that the provisions of Act XI of 1872‡ and of these rules are to apply to the case.

3. If the accused be a British subject, the Political Agent shall, before issuing such a warrant, consider whether he ought not to certify the case as one for trial in British India, and he shall, instead of issuing a warrant, so certify the case, if he is satisfied that the interests of justice and the convenience of witnesses can be better served by the trial being held in British India than in the Native State.

4. The Political Agent shall in all cases, before issuing a warrant under section 11, satisfy himself, by preliminary enquiry, that there is a prima facie case against the accused, and that the charge is not prompted by political motives.

5. [See amended Rule on page 13.]

6. If the accused person be a British subject, but the Courts of the State do not by custom or recognition as aforesaid try Native British subjects, the Political Agent shall dispose of the case himself.

7. If the punishment which may be awarded by the Indian Penal Code for any offence for which the accused person has been surrendered as above be more than the Courts of the State by custom or recognition as aforesaid inflict, the Political Agent may try the case himself if he thinks it advisable to do so.

8. Notwithstanding anything in the three preceding rules, the Political Agent shall try any such case himself, or make it over for trial to the ordinary Courts of the State, if he be generally or specially instructed by the Governor General in Council so to do.

9. In cases made over for trial by the Courts of a Native State under Rules 5 and 7, the Political Agent shall satisfy himself that the accused receives a fair trial, and that the punishment inflicted in the case of his conviction is not excessive or barbarous; and, if he is not so satisfied, he shall demand the restoration of the prisoner to his custody, pending the orders of Government.

* This Act has been repealed; but the Notification is kept in force by section 2 of Act XXI of 1879. Section 18 of the latter Act corresponds to section 15 of Act XI of 1872.

† In spite of this reference to "other powers," these Rules have been classified as British-Indian Enactments because they appear, in so far as they extend to Native territory, to be limited in their application to the persons to whom Act XXI of 1879 applies.

10. A return of all persons made over for trial by the Courts of a Native State under Rules 5 and 7 shall be submitted half-yearly by the Political Agent to the Government of India or the Government of Madras or Bombay, as the case may be, in the following form:—

Half-yearly Return, under Rule 9 of the Rules under the Extradition Act (XI of 1872),† of persons made over by the Political Agent at for trial by the Courts of Native States under Rules 5 and 7, for the period ending*

Number.	Name of person.	Nationality.	Offence with which charged.	Where arrested.	Date of surrender.	Native State to which surrendered for trial.	Reasons for surrender.	Nature of sentence passed, with date of sentence.	Remarks.

11. Persons arrested in British territory on a warrant issued by a Political Agent under section 11, and persons arrested on a warrant issued under section 14, shall be treated, as far as possible, in the same way as persons under trial for a similar offence would be treated under the Code of Criminal Procedure [Act X of 1872‡], or under the procedure in force in the Presidency-towns if the arrests take place within any Presidency-town.

12. The persons sentenced to imprisonment by the Political Agent shall, if British subjects, be conveyed to the most convenient jail in British territory, there to be dealt with as though the conviction had taken place in a Court of British India: provided always that no appeal shall thereby be given other than is allowed by any rule for regulating appeals from the decisions of the Political Agent.

13. Nothing in rules 5 to 10, inclusive, which refer to cases under section 13 of the said Act, shall be deemed to apply to Political Agents immediately under the authority of the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort Saint George or the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Bombay.

No. 87J, the 16th August, 1876.—In supersession of rule No. 5 of the Rules under Act XI of 1872 (the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1872),* published by Notification of this Department [i.e., the Foreign Department], No. 31J., dated 12th March, 1875, the Governor General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following:—

“If the person surrendered under the warrant of a Political Agent, issued under section 11, be not a British subject; or, if such person being a British subject, the Courts of the State, either by custom or by the express recognition of the Governor General in Council, try Native British subjects surrendered to them by extradition, and the Political Agent, after hearing the statement, if any, of the accused and making such further enquiry as he may deem necessary, is still satisfied that there is a prima facie case against the accused, and that the charge is not prompted by political motives, the Political Agent shall make over the accused to be tried by the ordinary Courts of the State in which the offence was committed; provided that the Courts of the State have, by custom or recognition as aforesaid, power to inflict the punishment which may be inflicted under the Indian Penal Code for the offence with which the accused person is charged.”

BERAR, OR THE HYDERABAD ASSIGNED DISTRICTS.

[These districts were assigned to the British Government by His Highness the Nizam for the support, on behalf of His Highness, of a contingent of troops known as the Hyderabad Contingent—See the Treaties of the 21st May, 1853, and 26th December, 1860, Aitchison's Treaties, Volume V, Part III, pages 212 and 222, respectively.

The nature of the tenure under which these districts are held by the British Government was thus described by Bayley, J., in *I. L. These districts (East and West Berar) form a Commissionership and have a Judicial Commissioner subordinate to the Resident at Hyderabad—See Foreign Department Notifications 156J., dated the 30th September, 1870, and 640 G., dated the 20th March, 1874, in Appendix B, pages 104 and 106.]

Berar Inam Rules—continued.Rule II.

1. After the validity of the Inam has been proved, each case will be disposed of as hereinafter explained, according as it belongs to one of the following

Classification of Inams.

classes :—

CLASS 1ST.—Personal Jagirs.

CLASS 2ND.—Grants or endowments to religious or charitable institutions, and for service therein.

CLASS 3RD.—Personal or subsistence grants.

CLASS 4TH.—Grants by former Governments for Service—

First.—As Pargannah service grants whether by money or land, whether now rendered, or partially rendered or discontinued.

Second.—As village service grants whether in money or land for service now performed in the Revenue or Police or discontinued.

CLASS 5TH.—Inams or huqs enjoyed by artisans and others for services rendered to the village communities, such as carpenters, blacksmiths, barbers, priests, dhrs, &c.

Rule III.

- 1.—Personal Jagirs to be continued, subject to a legacy duty or succession fee graduated on a scale according to the degree of relationship of the heir, as follows :—

Widows, lineal heirs, or undivided brothers, 2 per cent. on the real value of the property estimated at 10 years' annual rental.

Heirs by adoption 3 per cent.

Collateral heirs of one remove . . 5 „

Do. do. two removes . . 8 „

And further degrees of relationship disallowed except under special orders.

Rule IV.

- 1.—If the Inam was given for religious or charitable objects, such as for the support of temples, mosques, colleges, choultries, or other public buildings, or institutions, or for service therein, whether held in the names of the institutions, or of the persons rendering the service, it will be continued to the present holders and their successors, so long as the buildings or institutions are maintained in an efficient state, and the service continued to be performed according to the conditions of the grant.

2.—Inams granted for the construction and repair of tanks, channels, drinking reservoirs, &c., will not be interfered with so long as the terms of the grant are fulfilled, and the works are kept in good order, but on failure of conditions are liable to resumption.

Rule V.

- 1.—If the Inam is a personal or subsistence grant, it will be confirmed to the holder according to its actual tenure, and the terms upon which an Inam liable to quit-rent, or terminable, may be converted into a freehold and made perpetual, are stated below.

2.—If the present incumbent is a descendant of the original grantee, the Inam will be continued to him hereditarily, subject to the following conditions :—

First.—Successions limited to direct lineal heirs and undivided brothers ;

Second.—The Inam escheats to Government on failure of such heirs ;

Third.—Future alienation of the Inam is prohibited ; and Fourth.—The right of adoption to an Inam is not recognized.

3.—But an option will be given to the Inamdar to convert this restricted tenure into a freehold, with the full powers of alienation by gift, sale, adoption, or otherwise, by consenting to the payment of an annual quit-rent, calculated according to the following rates :—

First.—If the Inamdar is a youth, with reasonable prospect of having lineal heirs, an annual quit-rent, amounting to one-eighth of the estimated assessment of the land, will be considered a sufficient compromise for the right of reversion possessed by Government.

Second.—If the Inamdar have no lineal heirs, and from his advanced age no heirs could reasonably be expected, but if nevertheless he has terminable heirs, such as a wife without issue, or a widowed daughter without issue, in such case the quit-rent shall be equal to one-fourth of the estimated assessment.

Third.—If the Inamdar be not possessed of heirs of any kind, and from his age lineal heirs cannot be expected, the quit-rent of one-half of the assessment will be demanded.

4. But the above rates of compromise shall only apply to an immediate settlement, and it will be optional with Government to accept of any future offer on a similar basis.

5. If a present incumbent is not a descendant of the original grantee, but either in his own person, or in succession to others acquired the Inam fairly by adoption, or in alienation by gift, purchase, or otherwise, his claim being admitted, he will be allowed the benefits of Clause 2, Rule V, but without the option of refusal; and in commutation of the rights of Government, a quit-rent will be imposed on the Inam varying from one-eighth to one-half of the estimated assessment of the land according to his position in respect of heirs, as laid down in Clause 3 of that Rule.

6. As the rates on land have not been positively fixed, it will be competent for the Inam Commissioner, in communication with the Deputy Commissioner of the district, to fix a moderate rate on the land whether wet or dry, which shall bear a fair proportion to the rate assessed on the Government land of the same village or district.

7. After the amount of an annual quit-rent has been once fixed for the enfranchisement of each individual Inam, it will be open to the holder to redeem it outright by the payment at once, or at any future time, of a single fixed sum equal to 20 years' purchase of the quit-rent.

8. The quit-rent to be imposed under these Rules being in exchange for extended rights, will be exclusive of, and in addition to, any actual cess on such land already payable to Government, but the quit-rent will be calculated on the estimated assessment after deducting the cess previously payable.

9. Inams heretofore held on quit-rent or other cess will be redeemable by 20 years' purchase of the new and old rates.

10. Inams granted by subordinate Revenue authority without the sanction of Government, and which have not acquired the prescriptive right of uninterrupted possession for 40 years, shall be disposed as follows:—

First.—If the Inam was founded on fraud it will be resumed, and become liable to full assessment. But if the present incumbent was not a party to the fraud, and has had long possession, though within the prescribed term, he shall be allowed to retain the Inam, liable to an assessment equal to from one-half to two-thirds of the estimated rate.

Second.—It will rest with the Inam Commissioner, or Settlement Officer, or other investigating authority, to determine what is fraudulent possession.

Rule VI.

Service grants how to be limited, and the excess disposed of.

1. Grants by former Governments for services wholly or partially discontinued, either in the Military, Revenue, and Police Departments, shall be disposed of as follows:—

2. Inams granted in lieu of lands or money stipends, commonly called Huqs and Russums of offices, such as Deshmukh, Deshpandia, and others, the service of which has either been dispensed with, or otherwise discontinued, shall be disposed of according to Clause 2 of Rule V, if they are hereditary in their terms, either by express declaration of Government, or by recognized usage.

3. The maximum value of such grants, including every perquisite or profit, whether of land or money, or in kind, shall be limited to 5 per cent. on the gross land revenue for both Deshmukh and Deshpandia inclusive, and in such proportion as relates to the two classes, Deshmukhs and Deshpandias, as may have heretofore been enjoyed by each class respectively. But inasmuch as in many instances the service grants to these classes are not equal to 5 per cent., the Inam Commissioner, or Settlement Officer, has no power to increase the existing grants enjoyed by these parties.

4. It shall be optional with the Government to require the services of these classes as originally intended, or to dispense with them. If wholly dispensed with, the Inam shall nevertheless be confirmed to the holders as Inams subject to the payment of a quit-rent, not exceeding the highest rate above provided for personal Inam. This quit-rent will be charged in commutation both of the service thus discontinued, and of the reversionary interest possessed by Government in the Inam.

5. The Government does not admit the right of adoption without special sanction. The rate and mode of commutation will be determined on a consideration of the nature of the service, and the circumstances attending it in each district.

6. If a quit-rent exists already in any form, the mode of calculating the additional charge will be the same provided for in Clause 8 of Rule V.

7. Inams held for village officers, for Revenue or Police, the duties of which are still required to be performed, will be continued to the holders of the office unless they have been commuted for money allowances out of the Revenue. Where these Inams or Huqs are excessive in comparison with the duties required, whether in regard to the number employed, as in the case of the village police, or to the amount of the Inam or Huq considered in relation to the work performed, and to the usage in the same or other districts, the excess above certain maximum for village servants to be fixed according to the Khandaish or other rules (vide margin) as may be determined upon and for Parganah servants as fixed by the Government letter No. 4255, dated the 5th November, 1858 (vide margin), shall be dealt with as above provided for, that is to say, will be charged with a quit-rent in commutation both of the service tenure attached to it, and for the rever-sionary interest of the Government in the Inam.

8. When the Inam attached to the office is wholly or partially in the enjoyment of members of the family who do not perform service, such portion of the alienated Inam as may be considered necessary for the efficient performance of the duties will be attached to the office holders, and the rest treated in the same manner as the excess referred to in the previous clause.

Rule VII.

1. Inams enjoyed by artisans and others for service rendered to the village communities will be treated as hereditary grants, and confirmed to the holders and their heirs, subject to the continued performance of the particular service for which they were granted; but where the service is no longer required, or the grant is in excess of the service rendered, the case shall be dealt with according to the Rules above prescribed for the imposition of Government quit-rent.

Rule VIII.

1. The term Inam is to be understood as applying to all land whether in integral villages or lesser grants held entirely free of land-rent, or on a favourable quit-rent, and will all be disposed of under the above Rules. The claims of Maktadars also, although not strictly Inam, when existing for 60 years and upwards, shall be treated as Inam, and disposed of under similar Rules.

Rule IX.

1. The settlement will be made with the head member of the family holding the office or enjoying the Inam, and who will be held alone responsible to Government, and in no case will the Government interfere to compel the actual incumbent of an office to make over any portion of his regulated service grant to other branches of the family, as service grants cannot be divided according to the orders of Government, but rights to land required by Pargannah servants as Zemindars not as Government officials admit of division according to awards obtained in the regular Civil Courts. The Inam Commissioner or Settlement Officer ought to have nothing to do with such decision or divisions.

2. In many instances a single Pargannah is divided into turruffs or other divisions under different designations, and each of such divisions is held by a different Deshmukh and Deshpandia of the same family, and this division has taken place through many generations, in such cases it will be competent for the Inam Commissioner or Settlement Officer to deal with the head of each division. In like manner many large villages are divided into khails or dimmuts, or under other designation, there being a separate patel or patwari to each of such divisions, and the rights of such village servants will be admitted separately, provided it is not found to be injurious to the public service, or to be attended with internal dissension or increased expense.

3. It will be the duty of the Inam Commissioner or Settlement Officer, in communication with the Deputy Commissioner, to ascertain and decide who is the true Wattandar Pargannah or village servant at the present time, and to enter the name of each incumbent in a register of each class, which register will hereafter be held to be proof of the holder's claim.

4. Should any actual incumbent Wattandar be unfit for service by reason of age, incapacity, or sex, it shall be competent for such Wattandar to name an efficient agent, with the sanction of the District Officer, and the same shall receive, during the time he discharges the duties, one-half of the profits of the Inam or allowance.

5. It shall be competent for Government hereafter to determine whether grants for Pargannah or village service shall be wholly commuted into land Inams, or wholly into percentage on the revenue payable in money, or partly by Inam, and partly by money. But whatever portion is given in rent-free or quit-rent land shall be subject to the Rules above specified.

Rule X.

1. Whereas Deshmukhs, Deshpandias, Quanungoes, Patels, and Patwaris, sometimes produce old papers called "Mowaziina," showing that large quantities of land were at distant periods held by their ancestors as Pargannah and village servants, but it is admitted that from time immemorial such land has neither been in the actual possession of present claimants, nor their forefathers, nor are they able to point out the boundaries of such pretended grants, nor to produce any actual proof of possession at any time either by tradition, or otherwise, it is considered that right to land not under cultivation at the time of the cession, and not known to have been under cultivation as Inam land for 10 or more years before the cession, shall be peremptorily disallowed, and at once be included in Government land.

Rule XI.

1. When an Inam has to all intents and purposes been entirely abandoned, there being no acknowledged owner in existence, or if being in existence, he omits to come forward to claim it—and when the recorded possessor of an Inam fails after due notice to appear to prove his title, or refuses to produce his sanads or other documents—such Inam shall, in the first instance, be placed under attachment by the District Officer, and after the expiration of one year from the date of public notice be held to be liable to full assessment as Government land.

Rule XII.

Encroachments or land in excess of the recorded extent, if proved to be of 40 years' standing, will be dealt with as if it formed part of the original Inam. When encroachments and excess of recorded rights how to be disposed of. of less than 40 years' standing, the excess will be subjected to a quit-rent to be fixed according to the circumstances and term of possession, but not exceeding two-thirds of the assessment, except in the case of fraud of the actual holder, when the land will be resumed.

Rule XIII.

Inams once registered and admitted in accordance with the foregoing Rules will be subject to no further interference on the part of the Government, except such as may be necessary for the punctual realisation of the Government rent charged thereon, but the Inamidar at his option can avoid any future interference by purchasing the fee simple of his land by paying twenty times the amount of the annual quit-rent as above provided.

Private Inams thus enfranchised either by the payment of an annual quit-rent, or of a single fixed sum equal to 20 years' purchase of the quit-rent, will like every other description of property be subject to the jurisdiction of the ordinary course of justice in all questions of disputed rights, succession, &c., and they may be mortgaged, sold, or transferred in any manner at the will and discretion of the Inamdar, subject to the payment of quit-rent if such is not redeemed.

2.—But service grants are not liable to be alienated by purchase or otherwise.

Rule XV.

1. On the validity of an Inam being established by enquiry in accordance with the foregoing Rules, a title-deed will be at once furnished to the Inamdar by the Inam Commissioner, or Settlement Officer, acknowledging his title to the Inam on its present tenure, and specifying the terms upon which this tenure may be converted into a freehold. Similar title-deeds should also be issued in cases of money grants continued to claimants.

2. As the size of the bigah, as entered in sanads, and understood in old village papers, varies in different parts of the country, a rule of measurement for the conversion of the bigah into an acre will be furnished to each district after due enquiry.

Rule XVI.

Yeomeahs or pensions in perpetuity as a principle should be disallowed; but inasmuch as they have been under certain circumstances admitted by His Highness the Nizam's Government, it is necessary to continue them in cases where they may be supported by valid sanads as in clause 2, Rule I, and strictly within the conditions of the sanad. It is recommended, however, that, whenever practicable, money pension shall be commuted into land Inams under the Rules hereinbefore specified for Inams.

Rule XVII.

1. Money grants for deostans, teevars, durgahs, oorusses, musjids, village priests, &c. are to be continued if they are properly applied, but to be carefully scrutinized, and all abuses disallowed. These grants are to be included under the term "chillara kharch" in the village expenses, and including "sadar kharch" or "stationery" shall not, on the average, exceed 4 per cent. on the land revenue. These grants also, if practicable, are to be commuted into land grants, and the Government is willing to commute such grants at an advantage to the grantee of 50 per cent. in land above the money grant.

Rule XVIII.

Money grants for personal subsistence not supported by sanads, or not granted in perpetuity shall in all cases cease with the death of present incumbent. They may be continued for the present under the following Rules:—

First—Such claims as were included in the Irsal List of the Native Government, and payable from the Government Treasury, shall be confirmed for life.

Second—All other charitable allowances that are proved to have been enjoyed for upwards of 24 years before the cession are to be continued during the life-time of the incumbent, and all others resumed.

Rule XIX.

But an exception may be made in cases of extreme destitution, bodily infirmity, old age, or other consideration where the sudden withdrawal of the Government pension might produce starvation. With the exception of such money grants, as may be included in the chillara kharch of village expenses, it is intended that this item of expenditure shall, as soon as possible, disappear from the Revenue accounts.

1. As laid down in Government letter No. 4255, dated 5th November, 1858, the Inam Commissioner shall enquire into claims to integral villages or estates and detached lands included in the same grant,—and to large money grants, whether the grant had been made for the support of religious or charitable endowments, for service, or other purpose.

2. All petty grants for lands lying within the circle of a village, or if in money, for purposes connected with the management of a village, such as money Russums to village servants, or even to Pargannah officers, as well as all other petty money claims for subsistence or religious purposes, in the shape of assignments on the customs, or on the revenue of any particular village, or on the treasury, shall be enquired into by the Deputy Commissioner. He will be at liberty to employ an Assistant or extra Assistant as he thinks fit on the primary enquiry, which should be as brief and summary as possible; but he will reserve the decision upon the claims for his own consideration.

Rule XXI.

1. In regard to grants other than for service, the decisions of the Commissioner and the Resident will be final as follows: those of the former in respect of all holdings not exceeding 10 acres,—and those of the latter in respect of those not exceeding 50 acres, provided that the tenure is decided to be exempt from revenue only for the life of the incumbent. If lands to any extent be released in perpetuity, or for more than one generation, the cases must be reported as briefly as possible to the Government of India; and so also, in order to meet the requirements of the Account Department, must all cases in which money grants may be continued for religious or charitable purposes.

2. In respect to service grants, the decisions of the Commissioner and the Resident when concurrent respecting the lands held free by the Pargannah and the Village Officers as remuneration for service, and also respecting money allowances received by them on the same account, shall be considered final, provided that the aggregate receipts both from land and money do not exceed the prescribed percentage on the gross revenue of the village or pargannah to which they belong: viz., Deshmukhs and Deshpandias 5 per cent., Patels and Patwaris 6 per cent., Village Watchmen not exceeding 2 per cent.

3. In such cases, there is no occasion for each claim being reported in detail to the Government of India, the only thing required being a general report for each district, showing the number of Pargannah and Village Officers in each taluka, the revenue of the taluka, the extent of land with value thereof, and the amount of money enjoyed by these officers respectively.

[See Resident's Book Circular No. XXXVII of 1879.]

Berar Sub-tenancy Rules.

I.—The name and rights of every occupant of land must be recorded in the village papers. First the name and rights of the tenant whose name is now registered, or under the present system would be registered will be recorded, and then the names and rights of his co-occupants.

II.—Co-occupants are of two kinds: first, co-sharers holding by the same tenure as the registered occupant, and secondly, sub-tenants holding under and from the registered occupant or his co-sharers.

III.—When the rights of one or more co-sharers in a holding are admitted, the name of each, and the extent of his rights or interest, will be at once recorded. The extent of interests will be entered in fractions of a rupee when the whole arrangement is joint, as A 2 annas, B 10, C 4, but when each co-sharer separately cultivates a portion of the joint tenure, and is responsible to the community for the rent of that portion, then the amount of rent payable by each will be entered. Thus, if the rent of the joint tenure is 50 rupees, and each co-sharer cultivates separately, they will be recorded thus:—

A	:	:	:	:	:	:	:	27 rupees	} 50.
B	:	:	:	:	:	:	:	10 "
C	:	:	:	:	:	:	:	13 "

IV.—When a sub-tenant's right is admitted by both sides, the sub-tenant's name and the nature of his holding, that is, the extent of land and the rent he is to pay, or the proportion of crop he is to receive, will be at once recorded.

V.—When a claim to a co-share or sub-tenancy is disputed, either altogether or upon any point the Tahsildar will summarily enquire into the merits in the presence of both parties, and will according to the decision he arrives at, enter the name of claimant with the extent of interest proved or reject him.

VI.—There are some marks by which co-sharehood can often be distinguished from sub-tenancy when documents are wanting, and oral evidence worthless.

1st.—When co-occupants are members of the same family, and have occupied together from the first period of occupancy, or from time immemorial, the co-occupants are co-sharers.

2nd.—When a co-occupant pays and receives in the same proportion to the extent of his interest as the registered occupant, then the co-occupant is a co-sharer.

3rd.—When two or more parties have together taken up a field, they are co-sharers.

4th.—The raiyat who cultivates on any modification of the Buttee system, is a sub-tenant, not a co-sharer.

VII.—A co-sharer can only be ousted by a decree of Court. If ousted by a co-sharer, the Tahsildar on complaint made will summarily reinstate him, realizing the expense of the process from the ousting party, and taking security from them not to repeat the process.

VIII.—A sub-tenant who has held the same land under his principal for 12 years uninterruptedly cannot be ousted except by decree of Court; if ousted by his principal, the Tahsildar will, on complaint made, act as above. This rule does not apply to Buttee cultivators, whose right, as does that of all other sub-tenants who have not held for 12 years, or who do not hold on written agreement specifying period of lease, expires at the end of each year.

IX.—Written agreements must be abided by. If no period is mentioned in an agreement, it holds good for the life only of the lessee or party admitted into joint sub-tenancy. If a period is mentioned, the agreement holds good till its expiry, notwithstanding death of lessee or transfer of his right.

X.—Co-sharers* have the right of pre-emption as regards co-shares.

XI.—Sub-tenants cannot alienate their tenure by sale or mortgage without the consent of their superior.

[Sanctioned by Government of India letter No. 407, dated 10th December, 1866.]

Berar Settlement Rules.

I.—With a view to the improvement of the country and people, the assessment now introduced by the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, has been fixed by Government for a period of 30 years, viz., from Fasli to during which period the full benefit of every improvement, such as the conversion of dry into irrigated land by the digging or repairing of wells and tanks, the planting of fruit trees, &c., will be secured to the incumbent of the land, and no extra assessment levied on that account. A revised assessment may be made at any time after the expiry of the present settlement. Such revised assessment shall be fixed, not with reference to improvements made by the owners or occupants from private capital and resources, during the currency of any settlement, but with reference to general considerations of the value of land, whether as to soil, or situation, prices of produce, or facilities of communication.

II.—All cesses upon land have been absorbed in the new assessment; consequently when there are fruit trees in a field, the property of the occupant, their produce is to be taken by him and nothing on that account will be demanded from him in excess of the assessment of the field, but in the case of valuable fruit and other trees standing in fields assessed at dry crop rates, and not in cultivation at the introduction of the Survey, or the produce of which it has hitherto been customary to sell on account of Government, the right of property in these trees, and of occupancy in the field, should be offered at a fair upset price, and sold once for all by public auction to the highest bidder, and nothing in excess of the Survey assessment thereafter exacted. But if no one offer to undertake the cultivation of the field on these terms, the field may be rented at the Survey assessment, and the produce of the trees may be sold annually, according to custom.

* It has been ruled by the Resident that this term includes both co-sharers who all share in a whole field and those of whom each has specific rights over one part of the field but not over the rest of it—See Book Circular No. XXVII of 1891.

III.—No field is to be let for less than the full Survey assessment, on account of its having been long waste, over-run with jungle, or any other reason whatever.

IV.—The assessment on a field will not vary in consequence of dry being changed into garden or rice cultivation, or vice versa, or of bringing under cultivation portions of fields entered in the Survey registers as barren.

V.—The occupant of a Survey field, or recognized share of a field, or number, shall not be deprived of his right of occupancy in the said field, or recognized share of a field, by any Revenue Officer, so long as he continues to pay the assessment due thereon. This right of conditional occupancy is declared to be a transferable and heritable property; and any person, lawfully and authorizedly in occupation of any land, at the expiration of a settlement lease, who shall consent to the rate which may be assessed on his land at a revision of assessment, shall be continued in his occupancy without question.

VI.—In event of a holder of Government land dying, his fields or shares are to be entered in the name of his heirs or successors, should they or their representatives agree to take them. Should there be more heirs than one, the succession will be regulated by the Law of Inheritance applicable to the parties, or by their general consent signified at the time in writing, to a certain mode of succession. The name of the eldest heir will be entered in the Government books as principal, but the names of all the other heirs or successors must also be entered, and if the family property is divided, each co-heir will have as full power over his share as the person whom he succeeded had over the original holding, and if he wishes it, his name can be entered in the Government books as a separate sharer, and he may pay his rent separately to Government.

VII.—When two ryots hold a field, and one of them relinquishes his share, or dies without heirs, the share thus lapsing is to be offered, in the first instance, to the other sharer before it is offered to any other party.

VIII.—When there are more sharers than two in a field, and any of them relinquishes a share, or dies without heirs, it should be offered, as above, to the sharers, in the first instance, beginning, in the event of their failing to settle the matter amongst themselves, with the largest sharer, and so on to the least.

IX.—Whoever has a field, or portion of one, entered in his name, in the Government accounts, may have the said field, or portion transferred to the name of any other person agreeing to cultivate the same, on his making a written application to that effect in the usual "razinamah" or petition to resign. The razinamah may be given at any period of the year, but the transfer will not be considered final, or entered in the books, until the revenue of the current year is paid up.

X.—Proprietors of inam lands having possession of the same, have the right of cutting down, or otherwise disposing of all trees growing therein, and also holders of Government fields, of which they have been in uninterrupted occupancy from a period anterior to the age of the trees, or for a period of 20 years, or who have purchased the trees under the provisions of Rule 2.

XI.—Holders of Government fields besides those specified in the preceding rule, or occupants and lessees of inam lands, while attached or managed by Government Officers, are prohibited from cutting down fruit or timber trees on such lands. The permission to cut trees in Government waste fields, for any purpose connected with agricultural operations, can be granted by the Patel and Kulkarni on application, a record thereof being kept for the inspection of the Government Officers. For other actual and immediate wants of the villagers, such as repair of houses, &c., permission must be obtained from the Tahsildar; but for cutting any large number, or for any purpose of sale or profit, the permission of the Deputy Commissioner is necessary, when any conditions which may appear advisable can be imposed.

XII.—In taking up waste for cultivation, a whole survey field must be taken at the full assessment, and no portion of a field is on any account to be given for this purpose. There is no objection to two or more persons joining to take a field.

XIII.—There are some survey fields, consisting in great part of land* covered with dense jungle, or otherwise unsuited in their present state for cultivation, upon which no assessment is placed in the Survey Registers. In the event of portions of such fields being brought under cultivation, rates of assessment should be fixed by the Tahsildar upon the acres under tillage equivalent to those of similar soils in the same village. This Rule applies to all fields in the Survey Registers on which rates of assessment have not been fixed.

XIV.—Unless special exceptions be made by the Deputy Commissioner of valuable grass lands, certain to realize rents in excess of the Survey assessment, the grazing of all waste Government land is annually to be sold by auction, field by field, at the commencement of the monsoon, to the highest bidder, a preference being given to the inhabitants of the village to which the land belongs. If the bidding equals or exceeds the Survey assessment, the field should be entered in the name of the last bidder as other cultivated land held at the full assessment, and the person so taking it admitted to all the privileges of a holder of land under tillage.

XV.—The grass of fields especially excepted by the Deputy Commissioner from the operation of the preceding Rule may be sold by auction to any one for sums in excess of the Survey assessment. The occupant is prohibited from ploughing up the land.

XVI.—The grazing of the unarable and other fields not subjected to assessment in the Survey registers should be sold by auction, a reasonable portion being in every case first set aside for free pasturage, unless the villagers or any of them should agree to pay for it a fair annual rent during the whole term of the settlement.

XVII.—A Survey or Settlement Officer, and after the survey has been completed, the Deputy Commissioner, may set apart unoccupied lands in unalienated villages for free pasturage for the village cattle, for forest or grass reserves, or for any other public or Municipal purpose, and lands assigned specially for any such purpose shall not be otherwise appropriated or assigned without the sanction of the Commissioner.

XVIII.—Any person who shall unauthorizedly cultivate, or otherwise appropriate any portion of land so assigned, shall be liable to the forfeiture of any crop he may have raised on the said lands, which crop shall be disposed of as the Deputy Commissioner may direct; or if the crop is not available, to an assessment not exceeding five times the ordinary assessment of similar land, provided, however, that nothing in this clause shall exempt any person guilty of any criminal offence, in addition to the appropriation of land as aforesaid, from the punishment provided by law for such offence.

XIX.—1st. All jagir* villages and inam lands shall be surveyed and assessed exactly as if their revenues had not been alienated by the State, and the cost shall not be charged to the holders, except when large tracts of land including several villages are held in jagir, in which case the Jagirdar shall be called on to pay the expense.

2nd. Wherever in any description of jagir or inam land there appears to exist a body of persons who have occupied the said land from a period antecedent to the grant of jagir or inam, the grantee's claim shall be limited on the occupied land to the amount assessed by the Survey, and the occupants shall be considered proprietors and entitled to hold on the Survey Assessment, and to enjoy all the rights enjoyed by occupants on khalsa lands. But as regards unoccupied land, the grantee shall be entitled to make any terms he can with parties wishing to occupy.

3rd. In any case where it can be indubitably shown that a grant of proprietary right in the land accompanied the grant of the Government revenue, or that the land being waste when granted has been settled and brought into cultivation by the exertions, and at the cost, of the grantee, then he shall be considered the proprietor of the land, as well as the recipient of the revenue, and in the event of the grant being resumed, the proprietary right will continue.

4th. The above Rules apply to all jagirs and inams, large or small, and in all jagirs and inams the question of the rights of any occupant or cultivator will be decided according to the Sub-tenancy Rules.

XX.—In the event of inam land being confiscated, or temporarily attached, it is to be let out, while under Government management, at the Survey Assessment, or sold by auction, if waste, exactly as Government land. This Rule does not apply to the year in which the attachment is effected, for which the existing agreements made with the inamdar should be allowed to stand.

XXI.—Cultivators wishing to relinquish fields must give in a written application to that effect (which must specify the number, area, and assessment of every field to be relinquished) to the Village Officers on or before the 31st March in each year. The latter must, without delay, forward the application together with the parties concerned to the Tahsildar, who, after satisfying himself on the subject of it, is to ratify the application, give a written order to the applicant accepting the resignation, and transmit an order to that effect to the Village Officers, when the latter will make the necessary entries in the village accounts. In the same way, when waste fields are wanted for cultivation, a written application is to be made to the Village Officers, who are to forward it, with the applicants, to the Tahsildar, who, after satisfying himself that there is no objection to giving the land applied for, will accept their agreements, grant certificates to them, and transmit an order to that effect to the Village Officers. But the latter are not, under pain of punishment, to accept either resignations of fields, or engagements for waste, or to make alterations in the cultivation registers without referring, as above required, in the first instance to the Tahsildar, and receiving his orders thereon. All accepted resignations of cultivated and accepted applications for waste lands are to be produced at each Jamabandi Settlement for examination, and will form the vouchers for every alteration in the cultivation registers. In taking up waste land, the inhabitants of the village containing it must always have the preference over outsiders. In taking up land which has been resigned, the sub-tenants, if any, shall have the prior claim to hold direct from Government. In the event of any persons cultivating, or otherwise taking possession of any portion of a number without having received permission in writing from the Tahsildar, it shall be lawful for the Deputy Commissioner to levy from the said person a special assessment not exceeding five times the assessment ordinarily chargeable on the entire number, and to summarily eject him from the land unauthorizedly occupied.

XXII.—Occupants have full power to sublet their lands, but they will receive no assistance from the Revenue authorities in recovering their rents.

XXIII.—The revenue shall be collected in two equal instalments, which are due on the 15th January and 15th March of each year; but these dates may be changed with the sanction of the Governor General.

XXIV.—The field boundary-marks erected at the Survey should be preserved with the greatest care, and when injured, timely repairs must be made by the cultivators in the case of cultivated lands, and by hired labourers in the case of waste. The expense of the latter may be defrayed by the Deputy Commissioner without reference, if the sum do not exceed rupees five for every 1,000 acres of waste, and after reference to the Commissioner up to rupees ten for every 1,000 acres. The intervening strips connecting the boundary marks of a breadth corresponding with the latter are constituted the boundary of the field, and forbidden to be ploughed over, or otherwise injured; and in the case of dry crop land, before preparing any field for sowing, these strips are to be distinctly marked off each year by the holder running his plough along the boundary. In the event of this order being neglected, and this space ploughed up or sown, the cultivator is to be made to connect the two contiguous marks between which the boundary had been disregarded, by a continuous ridge of earth, 1½ foot in height, and should he fail to do so within a certain number of days, the Village Officers are to report the circumstance to the Tahsildar, who is to apply to the Deputy Commissioner for a notice to be served on the holder of the field, according to the provisions of Act III of 1846; and if this be disregarded, the boundary is to be put up by hired labourers, and the amount recovered from him as therein provided.

XXV.—Independent of the precautions specified in the preceding Rule, a regular inspection of the fields, for the purpose of ascertaining the state of the boundary-marks, and that none of the fields entered in the accounts as waste are surreptitiously cultivated, is to be made in each village as soon as practicable, after the 1st of November in each year. The results of this inspection are to be entered in a field register, prepared according to the form hereunto annexed. Before, however, commencing the work of inspection, the karkun nominated for the duty should summon the villagers to the chowkie, where he should read out and explain to them the Government proclamation regarding the preservation of their boundary-marks, of which a copy is subjoined. He should make the inspection in company with the Village Officers, and take care that the owners and occupants of the fields visited be also present. He should point out to them any repairs required to their boundary-marks, and order that they be completed within a certain number of days. In the event of any of the strips of boundary between the marks having been ploughed over, or otherwise encroached upon, the Inspector should require the party who may have done so to connect the two adjoining marks, between which the boundary has been violated, by a continuous mound of earth, one cubit in height, as a punishment for the encroachment, and make a note to that effect in a separate memorandum, to be kept in addition to the register, for the purpose of recording any remarks not admissible there. When every field has been thus inspected, and the state of its boundary-marks entered in the register, a second examination after the lapse of a sufficient time to allow of the repairs to the marks being completed should be made of every field entered at the first inspection as requiring repairs. And should any of these still remain to be made, the party to whose neglect this may be attributed, should be required, in addition to repairing the marks, as originally directed, to connect each incomplete mark with the one adjoining it, by a continuous ridge of earth, one cubit in height, and these particulars, with the name of the individual, should be noted in the separate memorandum above alluded to. A notice to this effect should then be served on him, in compliance with the provisions of Act III of 1846,* and in event of his failing to complete the boundary-marks within the specified period, the Village Officers are to do so by means of hired labourers, and the expense incurred on this account is to be recovered from him, as provided in the said Act. The correctness of the entries regarding boundary-marks in the Inspection Register should be tested in every village by the Tahsildar, or some confidential member of his establishment, and the results of this re-examination entered in the column of the Inspection Register appropriated for the purpose.

XXVI.—From the Inspection Registers described in the preceding Rule, the Tahsildar of each taluka should prepare and forward to the Deputy Commissioner on the 1st of May in each year a general abstract, according to the form annexed, of the state of the boundary-marks in each village of his charge, at the different inspections; the repairs subsequently made, and those still requiring to be so, at the date of his return. Under ordinary circumstances, there ought to be no mark unrepaired at this date, but in the event of there being any, the Tahsildar should be held responsible for the delay, if unable to assign satisfactory reasons for it. On receipt of this return, the Deputy Commissioner should immediately take measures for the completion of the repairs still to be made; or, if unable to do so, to report the circumstance for the instructions of Government.

FORM OF PROCLAMATION.

Notice is hereby given to all proprietors, holders, and occupants of land in the surveyed districts of Berar, that they are to preserve with the utmost care, and repair from time to time, as may be necessary, the boundary-marks which define the limits of their several fields, as fixed at Survey; and with a view to securing this, they are hereby directed, before preparing any dry crop field for sowing, to cause a plough to be run round the boundary, leaving an untouched strip, of three cubits in breadth, to connect each boundary-mark, which strip is to be carefully preserved as the boundary of the field. An annual inspection of boundary-marks will also be made in presence of the Village Officers and ryots, who are required immediately to repair any of the boundary-marks, which may be pointed out to them by the Inspector as defective. A second examination, embracing those fields of which the boundaries were found incomplete, will follow after a reasonable interval, and should it then be found that the owner, holder, or occupant of any field has neglected to make the necessary repairs, he will be required by way of penalty, not only to make the repairs originally directed, but, in addition, to connect each defective mark with the next adjoining, by a continuous ridge of earth, one cubit in height, and a notice to this effect will be served on him according to the provisions of Act III of 1846,* and in the event of his failing to comply with this, the specified boundary-marks and connecting ridges will be completed by means of hired labour, and the expense recovered from him as provided in the said Act. Any wilful injury done to any boundary-mark is a criminal offence, and punishable by fine to the extent of Rs. 50 under the same enactment.

XIX.—Tenants on jagir estates, or inam lands, who have occupied their land from a period antecedent to the grant of the jagir, or inam, shall be entitled to hold the said land at the Survey assessment rates, should they claim to do so.

Tenants whose occupancy dates from a period subsequent to the grant of the jagir or inam, shall make their own arrangements with the holders thereof, and shall not be entitled to claim the right of holding at Survey assessment rates.

Disputes regarding the duration of tenancy under this rule, and claims to hold at assessment rates, shall be triable in the civil courts.

NOTE.—The following modified Rule was, under the orders of the Government of India, substituted in December, 1877 for Rule XIX.

Rules for the disposal, &c., of Unclaimed and La-waris property.

In supersession of Book Circular No. II of 1877, and all other orders on the subject of property referred to therein, the following rules are issued by the Resident, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor General in Council.

Property to be dealt with by the Magistracy and sent in by the Police is usually of three kinds:—

sent up for trial.

Property to be dealt with by a Magistrate.

Unclaimed property to be disposed of under the orders of the Magistrate of the District.

A.—Articles transmitted to the Magistrate, under Section 127 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, with the Police report in cases

B.—Property seized by the Police as stolen property or on suspicion under Section 415 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

C.—Moveable property taken charge of by the Police under Sections 25 and 27 of Act V of 1861.

I. With regard to property of the first kind the Police Department, or such other officer as the Court in its discretion shall see fit to entrust it to, will retain charge of it pending the disposal of the case. When the case is decided, the property, if not returned to the owner, will be made over to the District Nazir for safe custody, if the Magistrate who tried the case is located at the head-quarters and in other cases to the Tahsildar of the Taluk in which it was taken possession of.

II. Property of the second kind will remain at the Police station until the Magistrate makes an order under Section 415 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

III. Property of the third kind shall at once be sent with an inventory thereof to the Tahsildar of the Taluk in which it was taken possession of.

IV. On receiving property under Rule III, the Tahsildar will enter it in his register, and send on the inventory which accompanied it to the Deputy Commissioner.

If the property is of a perishable nature, or if it appear to the Deputy Commissioner that its sale would be for the benefit of the owner, he may at any time direct it to be sold, and shall credit the proceeds to deposits. All other property, except that referred to in Rule V, which should be forwarded to Deputy Commissioners, at head-quarters, shall be kept for six months.

V. In the case of each kind of property above mentioned if such property consists of bullion, coin or jewels, and is of some value, say of Rs. 200 and upwards, it should be sent to head-quarters, where, under the orders of the Deputy Commissioner, it will be made over to the District Nazir. Should the value of the property amount to Rs. 1,000 or upwards, the Deputy Commissioner should not make it over to the District Nazir, but to the Treasurer, by whom the bullion at its estimated value in cash, the coin as a regular deposit, and the jewel as an extraordinary deposit, shall be entered in a special register, which should be countersigned every month by the Deputy Commissioner.

VI. The Tahsildar, as well as the Police, so long as the property remains in their possession under the above rules, shall be held responsible for its safe custody. Similarly, the Nazir or the Treasurer, as the case may be, will be responsible for the safe custody of the property in his possession.

VII. The Deputy Commissioner shall, as soon as possible, after the receipt of the property either at tahsil cutcheries or at head-quarters under Rule V, cause a proclamation to be issued specifying the articles of each kind, and requiring any person who may have a claim thereto, or to the proceeds thereof, to appear before the Tahsildar of the taluka, and establish his claim within six months from the date of such proclamation.

VIII. If claims are preferred, the Tahsildar of the Taluk shall hear them and submit his proceedings and opinion to the Deputy Commissioner, who shall dispose of them according to their merits, referring any doubtful case to the Commissioner for orders.

IX. If no person within the period of six months establishes his claim to such property or proceeds, and if the person in whose possession such property was found is unable to show that it was legally acquired by him, the property shall be at the disposal of Government, and shall be sold under the orders of the Deputy Commissioner; or if it has already been sold, the proceeds shall be at the disposal of Government, and shall be credited to Law and Justice.

X. All claims to monies credited to Government shall be heard in the Akola and Amraoti Districts by the Treasury Officers, and in the other districts, by Assistant Commissioners in charge of the taluks from which the property was received. The proceedings in each case shall be forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, who, in the case of claims received favourably for the applicants, shall report through the Judicial Commissioner for the orders of the Resident.

XI. All property referred to under these rules shall, as a rule, be sold at the taluk cutcherry, but Deputy Commissioners may order any property to be sold elsewhere, whenever such a course may appear to them to be clearly conclusive to the realization of the best obtainable prices.

XII. Sales shall be fixed on bazaar days during the hours of public business.

XIII. Fifteen days' clear notice shall always be given before sale, and a copy of the notification specifying the time and place of sale, and the property to be sold, shall be put up at the tahsil cutcherry.

XIV. A half-yearly statement in the form prescribed by the Judicial Commissioner shall be submitted by the Tahsildar to the Deputy Commissioner of their respective districts showing value of property in land at the end of the previous half-year, the value of the property received during the half-year, total value, value of property returned to owners, value of property credited to Government, and the balance in hand.

[Sanctioned in Government of India, Foreign Department, letter No. 155 I.J., dated 6th July, 1881.]

Rules regarding the Jaglia Cess.

1. The Cess will no longer be adjusted to the requirements of individual villages, but will be levied uniformly all over Berar at the rates, and in the manner, prescribed in Book Circular XVIII of 1878.

2. The house-tax, which has in some districts (Akola) been levied as a supplement to the Jaglia Cess, will be abolished.

3. The Cess thus uniformly levied all over Berar will, in future, be designated the "Jaglia and Local Cess." The change of name will mark the fact that the Cess is levied for purposes of local improvement as well as for the support of the Jaglia force.

4. Receipts from the "Jaglia and Local Cess" will be, in the first instance, at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner for the maintenance of the Jaglia force; but on the 1st April of each year the surplus of income (including any balance retained in hand at the beginning of the year)

* The amount required in each district will be fixed hereafter. over disbursements on the above account during the preceding year will, after deducting such amount as it may be necessary to keep in hand,* be credited to the Town Fund of the district.

Provided that in the case of municipalities and places in which Commissioner's Book Circular XIV of 1881 may be in force, a separate calculation shall be made for each such municipality or place, and the surplus of its income over disbursement be credited to its income from Town Fund.

5. It follows from the above instructions that the Jaglia and Local Cess will ultimately not be a disbursement heading except for charges connected with the maintenance of the Jaglia force, and that your Local Fund accounts will accordingly be considerably simplified. While the accumulated balance is unexhausted [vide para. 8], it will, of course, be a disbursement heading for charges debited to that balance.

6. While permitting the surplus Jaglia and Local Cess of places which are not municipalities, and to which Book Circular XIV does not apply, to be credited in the lump to the district Town Fund, the Government of India with a view to guard against the diversion of the proceeds of the general Town Fund to the requirements of towns and villages of importance to the detriment of the purely agricultural population direct—

- (1) that no assignment be made from general Town Fund to any municipality or place in which Book Circular XIV of 1881 applies without the special sanction of the Resident;
- (2) that such sanction be accorded only when the object of the proposed assignment is one which will be beneficial to the rural population of a large circumjacent tract, and not merely to the inhabitants of the place where the money is to be spent and of a few villages in the neighbourhood. Under this rule, a dispensary would be an object for which an assignment might safely be made; a serai or tank might or might not, a town-hall or ornamental garden would be an object to which it certainly ought not to be made.

Application of the accumulated balance of the Jaglia Cess.

7. The amount which was at the credit of the Jaglia Cess of each district on 1st April, 1882, will, subject to the deductions referred to in paragraph 5 above, be regarded as the accumulated surplus Jaglia Cess of that district.

8. This surplus shall until exhausted be recognised as a separate fund having separate budget allotments.

9. The surplus of each district shall be expended within that district on the following objects:—

- (a.) Extraordinary public works intended to improve the water supply of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, such as the reservoirs at Amraoti and Khamgaon. By extraordinary public works, Deputy Commissioners should understand works so large that they cannot be constructed out of current revenue.
- (b.) Smaller works of the same class in places where the need of water is great and local means are inadequate to supply it.
- (c.) To making subject, however, to the Resident's special sanction in each case, special grants to places to which Book Circular XIV applies for sanitary purposes and especially for carrying out systems of drainage.

10. The Comptroller should certify the amount at credit of each district on 1st April, after which Deputy Commissioners may submit proposals for spending such portion of the surplus as can be usefully spent during the current year, and in each succeeding Local Fund budget they will enter allotment from the surplus until it is exhausted.

SUSPENSION AND DISMISSAL OF ADVOCATES AND PLEADERS.

24. The Resident may suspend or dismiss any advocate or pleader who is convicted of any criminal offence implying a defect of character which unfits him to be an advocate or pleader.

25. The Resident may also, after such enquiry as he thinks fit, suspend or dismiss any advocate or pleader for taking instructions in any case except from the party on whose behalf he is retained, or a private servant of such party or a recognized agent of such party within the meaning of the Code of Civil Procedure; or for fraudulent or grossly improper conduct in the discharge of his professional duty, or for any other reasonable cause.

26. If the presiding officer of any Court subordinate to the Court of the Resident has reason to believe that any advocate or pleader practising before him has been guilty of fraudulent or unprofessional conduct, he shall reduce to writing in a concise form the grounds for his belief, and forward a copy of the same to the advocate or pleader, together with a notice that on a day therein appointed, not being less than 20 days from the date of despatch of the said copy, the matter will be taken into consideration.

On such day or on any subsequent day to which the enquiry may be adjourned, the presiding officer shall receive and record all evidence properly produced in support of the charge, and the evidence (if any) so produced by the advocate or pleader, and record his finding in the case.

27. If such officer finds the charge established, and considers that the advocate or pleader should be suspended or dismissed in consequence, he shall forward the proceedings in the case and his finding for the orders of the Resident. Every report made under this rule—

- (a) by the Cantonment Magistrate, Secunderabad, or by the Assistant Cantonment Magistrate, or by the Superintendent of Residency Bazaars at Hyderabad, or by an Attaché to the Resident sitting at Secunderabad, or Hyderabad, or by the Judicial Superintendent of Railways, His Highness the Nizam's Dominions, shall be made through the First Assistant Resident;

Exception.—The Resident may, at his discretion, award a fee not exceeding R2,000 in any suit prosecuted in his Court.

 (d) The fees of one advocate or pleader only will be allowed as costs in a suit.
 (e) The fees mentioned in the foregoing clauses of this section will include fees for conducting execution of a decree when the advocate or pleader employed for this purpose was engaged in the original prosecution of the suit.

31. When a suit is brought to enforce an agreement between an advocate or pleader and his client with regard to the amount or manner of payment for the whole or any part of any services rendered, charges incurred or disbursements made in connection with business transacted by such advocate or pleader, the Court may, if the agreement is not proved to be fair and reasonable, reduce the amount payable under it, or may order the agreement to be cancelled, and the costs, charges, and disbursements connected with the business done to be ascertained in the same manner as if no such agreement had been made.

32. An agreement between an advocate or pleader and his client shall bar any further claim on the part of the advocate or pleader beyond the terms of the agreement with respect to any services, fees, charges, or disbursements in relation to the conduct and completion of the business in respect of which the agreement is made, except such services, fees, charges, or disbursements, if any, as are expressly excepted by the agreement.

33. A provision in any such agreement that the advocate or pleader shall not be liable for negligence, or that he shall be relieved from any responsibility to which he would otherwise be subject, as such advocate or pleader, shall be void.

Rules regarding Jaglias.

I. Jaglias shall be appointed to villages according to the scale indicated by the black ink figures in the table attached; provided—

- (a) That villages of which one man is Patel may, when they are near to one another, be treated as one village.
- (b) That in villages in which town police are maintained, the Commissioner shall decide how many Jaglias should be kept up.
- (c) That it shall be optional to Patels of villages, which are uninhabited, or in which the number of houses does not exceed 50, not to appoint a Jaglia, and to do the work themselves, and receive the emoluments; but in the case of inhabited villages the concession here made may be withdrawn if the Patel proves negligent.
- (d) That the Commissioner may sanction departures from the scale in any special case which may be represented to him.

II. It shall be optional with the Patel, or, if there be more than one, with the Revenue Patel to cause Jaglias to be appointed according to the antique figures of the table, or not to appoint them and to take their pay himself.

III. Jaglias shall be nominated by Patels, subject to confirmation as follows:—

Sadr tahsilis	by the Taluk Officer.
Outlying tahsilis at which a Taluk Officer is stationed or in camp	by the Taluk Officer.
Other cases	by the Tahsildar.

IV. Patels are bound to make enquiry regarding the antecedents of persons whom they nominate, and will be held responsible, should they be found to have nominated, without bringing the fact to notice, any person who has been discharged from the Government service, or who has been criminally convicted, or regarding whom there may be other reasons for doubt. They will also be responsible for reporting things which may come to their knowledge, regarding the antecedents of a Jaglia after he has been appointed.

This rule is not intended to prohibit absolutely the appointment of persons who have been discharged from Government service, and the like, but only to ensure that the fact of discharge shall be known to the confirming officer, so that he may consider whether the man is a proper person to be appointed a Jaglia or not.

V. Persons nominated by Patels shall appear personally before the confirming officer accompanied by the Patel. If the Patel should be for any reason unable to attend personally, he shall send with the Jaglia a petition under his own signature by way of introduction.

VI. The confirming officer shall assure himself—

- (a) that the person nominated has been vaccinated;
- (b) that his antecedents and character are good; and
- (c) that he is not physically unfit for office.

The third test should not be severely applied; many an old man will make a more trustworthy Jaglia than a younger and stronger man, and it is not intended that in ordinary cases any special enquiry should be made regarding (b). It will suffice for the confirming officer to ask a few questions. Other enquiry should be made only when reason for doubt exists.

VII. Tahsildars are strictly prohibited from employing or retaining Jaglias at tahsils, except on occasions when the doing so is clearly necessary. They are also forbidden to transfer Jaglias from one village to another.

VIII. Jaglias shall wear a leather belt, with a brass badge inscribed with the words Jaglia No.—

Mauza

and a turban and coat of such pattern and material as the Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, may from time to time direct. The cost of these articles shall be defrayed by Government. The coat and turban shall be renewed annually.

IX. In villages in which there are two Patels, the Taluk Officer shall, in case of dispute, determine how the Jaglias shall be distributed between them. The general rule will be that at ordinary times Jaglias shall be available as much as possible for watch and word, but that at the collecting season they shall give every needful assistance to the Revenue Patel. Every Jaglia without exception shall be deemed to be available for both police and revenue duties.

- X. The annual pay of the Jaglias appointed, under Rule I* and shown in black ink figures in the table appended, shall be according to the following scale:—

* I.e. of the obligatory Jaglias.

(1)	For villages of classes I, II and III	Rs. 25	per annum.
(2)	Ditto class IV	„ 37½	do.
(3)	Ditto classes V, VI and VII	„ 50	do.
(4)	Ditto do. VIII and IX	„ 62½	do.

The annual pay of the optional Jaglias shown in antique figures in the table appended shall be, without exception, Rs. 25 per annum.

XI. The pay of the Jaglias shall be disbursed at tahsils on the 10th day of April, July, October and January.

XII. Patels may grant leave of absence to Jaglias up to one week, but must report having done so, and will be responsible that the duties of the Jaglia are not neglected.

For longer periods the sanction of the Tahsildar, or, if the period exceeds three months, of the Taluk Officer, must be obtained, and Jaglias taking such leave will usually be required to give substitutes.

XIII. Jaglias may be dismissed—

(a) by the Patel at pleasure;

I.—In these Rules—

“Pleader” means a person who is authorised to practise under the Rules regulating legal practitioners in the Court of the Resident at Hyderabad and the Courts subordinate to it.

“Authorised Agent” means a relative, a permanent servant, or a person holding a special power of attorney not being a professional practitioner, whom the Court may admit as a fit person to represent a party.

II.—Revenue business must ordinarily be transacted by the parties in person. Parties exempted or incapacitated by sickness or other sufficient cause from personal attendance in Court, or parties, who, though present themselves, receive the special permission of the Court, may, under the rules specified below, employ pleaders or authorised agents to represent them, or to conduct their cases.

III.—Pleaders may be allowed to appear in all cases of such intricacy or difficulty that the Court considers it necessary or advisable, on grounds to be recorded in the proceedings, that a pleader should be employed: and in all cases the object of which may be to prosecute a claim against Government.

IV.—Authorised agents may be employed in all cases in which the Court may see sufficient reason to grant the permission.

V.—Pleaders’ fees shall not be allowed in revenue matters, and pleaders are required to make their own arrangements for remuneration with their clients; of these arrangements no Court shall take judicial cognizance.

VI.—The provisions of Chapters V and VII of the Rules regulating legal practitioners shall, so far as they may be applicable, apply to a pleader allowed to conduct a case under these rules. Provided that every report required by those chapters to be made by a Court to the Resident about the pleader’s misconduct, &c., should be sent, when such Court is presided over by an officer below the rank of the Deputy Commissioner, through the Deputy Commissioner and the Commissioner, and when presided over by the Deputy Commissioner, through the Commissioner, who shall also record his own opinion on the case for the information of the Resident.

VII.—These Rules shall not affect cases in which special provision has been made for the employment of agents by any rules or legislative enactments, nor shall they apply to a goomasta appointed under the rules relating to village officers.

Rules regarding the Levy of Process-fees by Revenue Officers.

No. 121, dated the 17th June, 1884.—The following Rules regarding the levy of process-fees by Revenue Officers sanctioned by the Government of India, in their letter No. 369 R., dated 23rd May, 1884, are published for information and guidance:—

“As considerable doubt and divergence of practice appears to exist in regard to the issue of processes by Revenue Officers when performing executive functions and not acting as Revenue Courts, and the fees chargeable thereon, the Governor General in Council is pleased to issue the following instructions on the subject.

“2. The attention of Revenue Officers is directed to the rules for the service of processes framed under section 20 of the Court Fees Act (VII of 1870), published in Residency Orders,* dated 13th December 1872, which will govern, as heretofore, the levy of fees in proceedings before a Revenue Court.

“These rules are to be held to be generally applicable so far as consistent with the instructions now conveyed to the issue of formal processes in revenue proceedings conducted by an officer in an executive capacity.

“3. Whenever, on an application made by a petitioner in such proceedings conducted by an officer in an executive capacity, it appears necessary, for the purpose of making the enquiry prayed for by the petitioner, to summon any person, or to issue any other process or notice, the petitioner shall be required to deposit process fees at the rate prescribed in the rules under the Court Fees Act aforesaid as payable in suits of the lowest valuation, and shall also deposit diet money in accordance with the rules in force in Civil Courts.

* See now the Rules published under Notification No. 59, dated the 2nd April, 1886, Hyderabad Residency Orders, 15th April, 1886, Part I, p. 47. They are quoted on page 63.

Rules regarding the Levy of Process-fees by Revenue Officers—continued.

"5. The presiding officer may dispense with the levy of any process-fee when the parties from whom it is leviable appear to be paupers, or for any other sufficient reason.

"6. In cases in which Government is directly interested, Revenue Officers are empowered to pay diet money to persons summoned even when the process is not issued at the instance of the Government if it appears that the party at whose instance the process issued has sufficient cause for desiring the attendance of the persons summoned.

"7. No diet money will be given to village officers who are summoned in any matter connected with their official duty.

"8. Informal processes requiring the attendance of persons issued otherwise than on application of a petitioner or on behalf of Government may, at the discretion of the presiding officer, be directed to a village official either by post or by any other more convenient mode for communication to the parties concerned.

"9. When a process is issued for realization of a balance due to Government, whether on account of land revenue or of any other demand, a process fee of 8 annas shall be leviable from the person against whom the process issues, and shall be recoverable as part of the said demand.

"10. It shall be in the discretion of the officer passing final orders on a revenue case, or application in which two parties are concerned, and in which processes have issued, to pass such orders as he may think fit in regard to the payment of the costs by either of the parties. Such costs shall be recoverable by summary process in the same way as arrears of land revenue.

"11. Separate registers of process-fees realized by Revenue Officers, whether as Revenue Courts or in an executive capacity, will be maintained, and where the income is sufficient, additional peons may, with the sanction of the Commissioner, be appointed.

"12. Officers of the Sadar will issue their processes through the tahsildar, and will credit their receipts to the tahsil through which the process issues."

3. Such portions of each taluk and district as are for the time being included in the limits of a municipality, or of a civil station, or of a village in which Book Circular XIV of 1881 is in force, shall, for the purposes of this Law, be deemed not to form part of the taluk and district.

4. There shall be established for each district a district board having authority over the district, and for each taluk a taluk board which shall in the taluk be the agent of the district board, and, as such agent, have such authority and discharge such duties as the district board may, by written authority in that behalf, from time to time, confer or impose upon it.

5. (1) The taluk board for a taluk shall consist of so many elected members and so many nominated members as the Resident may, from time to time, fix in this behalf:

but neither of the electoral bodies shall consist of less than twenty-five electors.

(4) A person to be qualified for election must, at the time of his election, be an elector.

(5) The nominated members shall be such persons as the Commissioner may, subject to the rules made under this Law, from time to time, nominate in this behalf.

6. The district board for a district shall consist of so many of the elected members of each taluk board as the Resident thinks fit, elected in this behalf by the taluk board in manner prescribed, and such other persons as the Commissioner may appoint in this behalf:

(c) one-half of the persons so appointed shall be persons who are nominated members of taluk boards.

7. (1) The term of office of a member of a taluk board, and of a member of a district board, shall be fixed, from time to time, by the Resident by rules made under this Law, and may be so fixed as to provide for the retirement of members by rotation, but shall not exceed three years.

(3) A person elected, nominated, or appointed under this section to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office until the person whose place he fills would regularly have gone out of office, and shall then go out of office, but shall be again eligible for election, nomination, or appointment.

No. 10-I, dated the 1st January, 1886.—Whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend the rules relating to the offices of patel and patwari in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts :—His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council is pleased to issue the following orders :—

1. (1) These orders may be called the Berar Patels and Patwaris Law, and are hereinafter referred to as “this law.”

(2) This law extends to the territories known as the Hyderabad Assigned Districts ; and

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of January, 1886, but not so as to affect anything done, or any proceedings commenced, before that day.

2. In this law, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the expression “village” means an area for which the office of patel or patwari has been constituted, and includes a group of villages and the sub-division of a village known as a khe!l where at the time of this law coming into force there is a separate patel for the sub-division.

3. (1) There shall not be more than one patel in a village if the duties of the office can be efficiently performed by one patel.

(2) If there are two or more patels in a village the Deputy Commissioner shall, subject to the rules made under this law, distribute the duties of the office among them in such manner as he deems fit.

4. The area comprised in the circle of a patwari at the time of this law coming into force may, with the sanction of the Resident, be varied for the purpose of securing compactness, but for no other purpose.

5. (1) When the office of patel or patwari becomes vacant in any village, except a village held on jagir or palampat tenure, the Deputy Commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of this law, and of the rules made under this law, appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner shall cause notice of the day on which he will take the appointment into consideration to be given to persons known to be interested therein, and on that day, or on any subsequent day to which an adjournment may be made, shall hear and record any statements those persons may desire to make.

(3) The Deputy Commissioner shall in making the appointment have regard to the following matters, namely :—

(a) the law of inheritance applicable to the family by which the office is held,

(b) the custom which has regulated previous tenure of the office, and

(c) the physical, moral, mental, and educational fitness of the persons having any claim to the office, and shall not appoint a woman if a male relative of the late incumbent of the office exists.

(4) If there are two or more patels in a village, and there are two or more families or sub-divisions of a family which have enjoyed the right of service, the patels will ordinarily be selected from different families or sub-divisions.

(5) The Deputy Commissioner shall, where the appointment he may make has been opposed, record at length his reasons for deciding in favour of the persons whom he has appointed.

6. (1) In a village held on jagir or palampat tenure the jagirdar or palampatdar shall, on the occurrence of a vacancy, nominate the patel or patwari, and the Deputy Commissioner may appoint the nominee.

(4) An appointment for a term of years may be made in recognition of the claims either of the particular person appointed, or of the family or sub-division of a family to which the person appointed belongs. In the latter case, if, before the expiration of his term of office, the person appointed dies, or becomes physically or mentally unfit to discharge his duties, his successor shall, subject to the condition of personal fitness, be selected from the same family or sub-division of a family, and shall hold office until the person whom he has succeeded would regularly have gone out of office, and shall then go out of office.

* (6) If a person specified in sub-section (1), sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of this section fails to appoint an agent as empowered by the sub-section, the Deputy Commissioner may appoint the agent which that person is so empowered to appoint.

9. (1) The emoluments appertaining to the office of Patel or patwari shall be enjoyed solely by the person for the time being holding the office.

(2) If an agent is performing the duties of the office, his remuneration shall be regulated by arrangement between him and his principal or, as the case may be, between him and the mother of, or the person standing in the relation of guardian to, his principal.

(3) If there are two or more Patels in a village, the Deputy Commissioner shall, subject to the rules made under this law, determine the proportions in which they shall share in the emolument of the office.

10. The emoluments appertaining to the office of Patel or patwari shall not be liable to attachment or sale in satisfaction of a decree or order of any Civil or Revenue Court.

11. Every assignment of, and every charge on, and every agreement to assign or charge, any emoluments appertaining to the office of Patel or patwari shall be void.

15. Before passing an order for the suspension or dismissal of a patel, patwari or agent under Section 12 or Section 13, the Deputy Commissioner shall give him an opportunity of explaining the matters alleged against him and shall record any statement he may desire to make.

16. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, a vacancy caused by the suspension or dismissal of a patel or patwari may, by order of the Deputy Commissioner, be filled for a period not exceeding six months in the case of suspension, or five years in the case of dismissal, without regard to the law of inheritance applicable to the family by which the office is held or to the custom which has regulated previous tenure of the office.

TAXATION.

Taxation.

41. (1) Subject to any general rules or special orders which the Governor-General in Council may make in this behalf, and to any rules made by the Resident under this Law, a committee may, from time to time, for the purpose of this Law and in the manner by this Law directed, impose in the whole or any part of the municipality any of the following taxes, namely:—

(A) with the previous sanction of the Resident—

- (a) a tax on buildings and lands situate within the municipality, not exceeding seven-and-a-half per centum on the annual value of the buildings and lands;
- (b) a tax on persons practising any profession or art or carrying on any trade or calling in the municipality;
- (c) a tax on all or any vehicles, boats, animals used for riding, driving, draught or burden, and dogs, kept within the municipality;

- (f) an octroi on animals for slaughter, or goods, or both, brought within the municipality for consumption or use therein; and

(B) with the previous sanction of the Resident and of the Governor-General in Council, any other tax.

(2) In this section, "annual value" means the gross annual rent for which buildings or lands liable to taxation may reasonably be expected to let:

Provided that, in the case of land which is assessed to land-revenue or of which the land-revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned the annual value shall, if the Resident so directs, be deemed to be double the amount of the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the land, or, when the land-revenue has been wholly or in part released, compounded for, redeemed or assigned, double the amount which, but for such release, composition, redemption or assignment, would have been assessable as land-revenue.

42. When a committee has, in exercise of the powers conferred by this Law, provided for the performance, with regard to any buildings or lands by its agents, of the duties usually performed by sweepers, it may, with the previous sanction of the Resident, in the manner by this Law directed, impose upon those buildings and lands, in addition to any other tax imposed upon them under this Law, a tax, to be called the scavenging-tax, at such rate or of such amount as it thinks fit:

Provided that in fixing the rate or amount regard shall be had to the principle that the total net proceeds of the tax should not exceed the cost of the performance of the said duties.

43. (1) Besides the taxes mentioned in the foregoing sections, a committee, with the previous sanction of the Resident, may, for the purpose of constructing or maintaining works for the supply of water to the municipality or paying the principal or interest of any loan raised for the construction of such works, impose, in the manner by this Law directed, a tax, to be called the water-tax, upon buildings or lands which are so situated that their occupiers can benefit by the works.

(2) The rate or amount of the tax so imposed on different buildings or lands may be determined with reference, among other considerations, to their distance from the nearest point at which the water is deliverable by the works and to their level; but in fixing it regard shall be had to the principle that the total net proceeds of the tax, with the estimated income from payments for

44. (1) A committee may, at a special meeting, pass a resolution to propose the imposition of any tax under section 41, section 42

(2) When such a resolution has been passed, the committee shall publish a notice, defining the class of persons or description of property proposed to be taxed, the amount or rate of the tax to be imposed and the system of assessment to be adopted.

(3) Any inhabitant objecting to the proposed tax may, within thirty days from the publication of the notice, submit his objection in writing to the committee; and the committee shall, at a special meeting, take his objection into consideration.

(4) If no such objection is received within the said period of thirty days, or if such objection, having been considered as aforesaid, is deemed insufficient, the committee may forward its proposals to the Resident, with the objections (if any) which have been submitted as aforesaid, and its decision thereupon.

(5) The Resident, on receiving such proposals, may sanction the same, or refuse to sanction them, or return them to the committee for further consideration.

(6) When the Resident sanctions any such proposals which require the further sanction of the Governor-General in Council, he shall submit the same to the Governor-General in Council, with the objections (if any) received through the committee; and the Governor-General in Council may sanction the proposals, or refuse to sanction them, or return them to the Resident for further consideration.

(7) When the proposals of a committee have been sanctioned by the Resident, or by the Resident and the Governor-General in Council, as the case may be, the committee may, at a special meeting, direct the imposition of the tax in accordance with such proposals.

(8) In giving such direction the committee shall fix a date from which the tax shall come into force:

Provided that—

(b) no tax leviable by the year shall come into force except at the commencement of the year by which it is leviable; and

(c) no other tax shall come into force less than one month from the date of the meeting at which its imposition is directed.

(9) A notification of the imposition of a tax under this Law shall be conclusive evidence that the tax has been imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

45. A committee may, by resolution passed at a special meeting and confirmed by the Resident, abolish or reduce in amount any tax imposed under the foregoing sections.

46. (1) A committee may exempt, in whole or in part, from the payment of any such tax any person who by reason of poverty may in its opinion be unable to pay the same.

(2) A committee may, by resolution passed at a special meeting and confirmed by the Resident, and the Resident may by order, exempt in whole or in part from the payment of any such tax any person or class of persons or any property or description of property.

47. (1) If at any time it appears to the Resident, on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax imposed under the foregoing section is unfair in its incidence, or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interests of the general public, he may require the committee to take within a specified period measures to remove the objection, and, if within that period the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of the Resident, the Resident may by notification suspend the levy of the tax or of such part thereof until the objection has been removed.

(2) The Resident may at any time, by notification, rescind any such suspension.

48. No tax imposed under this Law shall be invalid merely for defect of form; and it shall be enough in any such tax on property or any assessment of value for the purpose of any such tax if the property taxed or assessed is so described as to be generally known; and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier thereof.

- Appeals against taxation.
- (2) The order of the appellate authority shall be final.
52. (1) No appeal shall lie in respect of a tax on any building or land unless it is preferred within one month after the publication of the notice prescribed by section 58, and no appeal shall lie in respect of any other tax unless it is preferred within one month from the time when the demand for the tax is made:
- Limitation for appeals.
- Provided that an appeal may be admitted after the expiration of the period prescribed therefor by this section if the appellant satisfies the officer before whom the appeal is preferred that he had sufficient cause for not presenting the appeal within that period.
- (2) No appeal shall be entertained unless the amount of the tax to which it relates is deposited with the committee before the appeal is preferred.
53. No objection shall be taken to any valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned, in any other manner or by any other authority than in this Law is provided.
- Taxation not to be questioned except under this Law.
54. All taxes leviable in any local area under Act IV of 1873, at the time when a committee having authority over that local area comes into existence under this Law, shall, so far as their imposition and assessment are consistent with this Law and within the powers conferred thereby, be deemed to have been imposed and assessed under this Law.
- Taxes leviable under Act IV of 1873 to be deemed to be taxes under this Law.

Taxes on Immoveable Property.

 - (e) the amount of the tax assessed thereon by the committee.
- (2) For the purpose of preparing the list the committee may require the owners or occupiers of the buildings or lands to furnish it with returns of annual value.
56. When the assessment-list has been completed, the committee shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list or a copy thereof may be inspected; and every person claiming to be either owner or occupier of any property included in the list, or the agent of any such person, shall be at liberty to inspect the list and to make extracts therefrom without charge.
- Publication of notice of assessment.
57. (1) The committee shall at the same time give public notice of a time, not less than one month from the publication of the notice, when it will proceed to revise the valuation and assessment; and in all cases in which any property is for the first time assessed, or the assessment thereof is increased, it shall also give notice thereof to the owner or occupier of the property.
- Public notice of time fixed for revising assessment-list.
- (2) All objections to the valuation and assessment shall be made in writing before the time fixed in the notice, or orally or in writing at that time.
58. the signatures of not less than two members of the committee, who shall at the same time certify that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment contained in the list, except in the cases in which amendments have been entered therein; and, subject to such amendments as may thereafter be duly made, the tax so assessed shall be deemed to be the tax for the whole year by which it is leviable next following that in which the assessment is made.

(2) The list when amended under this section shall be deposited in the committee's office, and shall there be open during office-hours to inspection by all owners and occupiers of property comprised therein, and a public notice that it is so open shall forthwith be published.

59. (1) The committee may at any time amend the list by inserting the name of any person whose name ought to be inserted, or by inserting any property which ought to have been inserted, or by altering the assessment on any property which has been insufficiently valued or assessed through mistake, oversight or fraud, after giving notice, to any person interested in the amendment, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service of such notice, at which the amendment is to be made.

(2) Any person interested in any such amendment may tender his objection to the committee in writing before the time fixed in the notice, or orally or in writing at that time, and shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard in support of the same in person or by authorised agent as he thinks fit.

60. It shall be in the discretion of the committee to prepare a new assessment-list every year, or to adopt the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year, with such alterations as may in particular cases be deemed necessary, as the valuation and assessment for the year following, giving the same notice of the valuation and assessment as if a new assessment-list had been prepared.

61. (1) When a tax payable under section 41, sub-section (1), clause (a), or under section 42 or section 43, is payable in one sum in respect of an entire year, and the property in respect of which it is payable is unoccupied throughout the year, or when such a tax is payable in instalments and the property is unoccupied throughout the period in respect of which an instalment is payable, the amount payable in respect of the property for the year, or the instalment, as the case may be, shall be remitted:

Provided that it shall be in the discretion of the committee to direct that no remission shall be granted unless notice in writing of the vacancy has been given to it within such time from the beginning of the year or of the period as it may, from time to time, fix in this behalf.

(2) When in any case not provided for by the foregoing part of this section a building in respect of which a tax is payable under section 41, sub-section (1), clause (a), or under section 42 or section 43, is wholly or in great part demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise, the committee may remit such proportion of the tax as it thinks equitable.

62. (1) A tax payable under section 41, sub-section (1), clause (a), shall be paid by the owner of the property in respect of which it is payable.

Taxes on immoveable property by whom payable.

63. (1) When any sum is due on account of a tax payable under this Law in respect of any property by the owner thereof, the committee shall cause a bill for the amount, stating the property and the period for which the charge is made, to be presented to the person liable to pay the same.

(2) If the bill is not paid within one month from the presentation thereof, the sum due shall be deemed to be an arrear of tax.

(3) The amount of every such arrear may be recovered, on application made in this behalf by the committee to the Deputy Commissioner, as if the property were an estate assessed to land-revenue and the arrear were an arrear of such revenue due thereon:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall authorise the arrest of a defaulter.

Octroi and Tolls.

64. If any person bringing or receiving a conveyance or package within the octroi-limits of a municipality in which octroi is leviable, refuses, on the demand of an officer authorised by the committee in this behalf, to permit the officer to inspect the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any articles in respect of which octroi is payable, the officer may cause the

- (b) communicate to that officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature which he may possess relating to the article.

66. Every officer demanding octroi by the authority of the committee shall tender to every person introducing or receiving any article on which the tax is claimed a bill specifying the article taxable, the amount claimed and the rate at which the tax is calculated.

67. (1) In case of non-payment of any octroi or of any toll on demand, the officer empowered to collect the same may seize any article on which the octroi is chargeable or any vehicle or animal on which the toll is chargeable, or any part of its burden of sufficient value to satisfy the demand.

(2) The committee may cause any property so seized, or so much thereof as is necessary, to be sold by auction to satisfy the demand, with the expenses occasioned by the seizure, custody and sale thereof, unless the demand and expenses are in the meantime paid, after the lapse of five days from the seizure, and after the issue of a proclamation fixing the time and place of sale:

Provided that, by order of the chairman or a vice-chairman, articles of a perishable nature which could not be kept for five days without serious risk of damage may be sold after the lapse of such shorter time as the chairman or vice-chairman may, having regard to the nature of the articles, think proper.
